

The Humane Society of the United States is the nation's most effective animal protection organization as rated by our peers.

We're the nation's #1 provider of hands-on care for animals, and we prevent cruelty to millions more through our advocacy campaigns. Active in all 50 states and more than 50 countries, we drive transformational change in the U.S. and around the world by attacking cruelty at its roots.

Strengthening the U.S. Anti-Cruelty Framework

In the past 10 years, we've trained more than 8,000 law enforcement officers and helped pass more than 1,000 state laws to change the legal landscape for animals throughout the United States.

Made animal cruelty a felony in all 50 states

Made dogfighting a felony in all 50 states

Made cockfighting illegal in all 50 states and a felony in 42

Achieving Transformational Change for Animals

Closing markets for seal products to spare 2 million seals from slaughter

Shutting down the U.S. horse slaughter industry and working to close export markets

Popularizing spay/neuter and adoption to drive down euthanasia rates by more than 80%

Working with 100+ food companies to spare farm animals from extreme confinement

Restricting the trade in dangerous exotic pets in 19 states and at the federal level

Ending the era of chimps in research and persuading nations to ban cosmetic testing on animals

Along with our affiliated animal care centers, caring for more than 100,000 animals each year.

Providing education and training for shelter and rescue groups with Animal Sheltering magazine, animalsheltering.org and our annual Animal Care Expo.

THE HUMANE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

To learn more about our work, visit humanesociety.org.
You can read President and CEO Wayne Pacelle's blog at blog.humanesociety.org.