WN026 Namibia 7-day Namibia Plains Game Hunt Along Side Kevin 'Dauber' Lacz for One Hunter and One Observer

Hunt Namibia alongside the highly decorated veteran Kevin 'Dauber' Lacz and from the movie American Sniper on this 7-day 1x1 guided hunt with $4,000 towards trophy fees for one hunter and one observer, donated by Ekuja Hunting Safaris. Method of take is rifle. Schedule hunt for available dates during the 2016 or 2017. In 2006, Kevin 'Dauber' Lacz deployed to Ramadi, Iraq with Charlie Platoon, Task Unit Bruiser. The work he did as a platoon sniper and medic contributed to his task unit becoming the most highly decorated special operations task unit since Vietnam. Kevin personally conducted numerous sniper over-watches, direct action missions, raids, and tribal engagements in support of the effort to halt the spread of violence through Ramadi. For his actions on his 2006 deployment, including acquiring numerous enemy kills and braving enemy fire to carry a fallen comrade to safety, Kevin was awarded a Bronze Star with a Combat 'V.' In 2008, Kevin returned to Iraq, this time as a member of Delta Platoon. His focus was the Iraqi border with Syria and the interception of foreign fighters trying to infiltrate the country. He completed another deployment with Chris Kyle, this time as a platoon sniper, medic, and breacher - a trifecta of certifications that made Kevin the only member of his platoon qualified to go on literally any operation they planned. Included are accommodations, meals, $4,000 credit toward trophy fees, airport transfers, 1x1 guide service and field prep. Additional hunters are welcome for $320 per day and observers for $180 per day. Hunt may be extended for $320 per day and upgraded per outfitter's current price list. Not included are any before/after hunt expenses, dip-pack-ship and gratuities. Point of arrival/departure is Windhoek. Original Oil on Belgian Linen

This year Banovich Fine Art Gallery presents 'Return to the Battlefield,' an original oil painting on Belgian linen. For millennia lions have preyed on cape buffalo. Weighing in at nearly one ton and with a solid body of bone and muscle, the cape buffalo can be a formidable and expensive meal. Under the setting African sun we see a huge East African male lion returning to the scene of the battle where in this case he was the clear victor. John Banovich is a long time donor and supporter of Safari Club International and the Safari Club International Foundation. Banovich's work is featured in important museums, corporate and private collections and has appeared in numerous prestigious venues including; The Hiram Blauvelt Art Museum, Leigh Yawkey Woodson Art Museum, National Museum of Wildlife Art, Wildlife Experience Art Museum, Salmagundi Club, Museum of the Southwest, Natural History Museum, Gilcrease Museum, traveling exhibitions sponsored by the Society of Animal Artists and showcases hosted by Safari Club International, Houston Safari Club and Dallas Safari Club. Most recently Banovich's 50 x75 inch painting, 'Game of Lions,' was awarded 'Best in Show' by the Artist for Conservation Foundation, a non-profit, international organization dedicated to the celebration and preservation of the natural world. SN008 Chile, Patagonia
8-day Chilean Patagonia Luxury Fly Fishing and Eco-tour Adventure Tour for Two Guests

Nomads of the Seas has donated an 8-day Chilean Patagonia adventure with six days of trout and salmon catch-and-release fly fishing trip for two anglers. Schedule this trip with outfitter for open dates in 2016 or 2017. Discover a rare remote corner of the globe, fly fishing untouched waters by day and cruising the Patagonian coastal fjords by night. Your hotel will be the Atmosphere, Nomads' ship. Atmosphere has been selected among the planet's top ten Explorer Yachts by Super Yacht Magazine, and Forbes magazine rated it as one of the top ten fly fishing lodges in the World! She spoils her guests with a crew of thirty-two serving a maximum of 28 guests, and serves as a mother ship for a Bell Ranger 407 helicopter, six Rogue jet boats, a Zodiac Hurricane 920 RIB, more than fifty strategically located McKenzie drift-boats, and over a dozen jet skiffs and cata-crafts. This impressive fleet compensates for the remoteness of the fishing grounds, which range from freshwater rivers, creeks, lakes and lagoons to brackish tidal sections of rivers. Nomads reach into Patagonia's isolation so well that they have coined the term 'ultimate fly fishing' to capture their flexibility in the face of changing conditions. Besides fishing and enjoying the Atmosphere's comfort, you can go whale watching, bird watching or on inland tours. (queen, if available), meals, open bar (except special liquors), use of spa, thalassotherapy, daily fly fishing excursions as scheduled, and transfers to and from local airport. Additional anglers and observers are welcome, and cabin upgrades are available. Consult outfitter for details. Not included are transportation to/from Puerto Montt, massages, extra helicopter/jet boat hours, use of satellite phone, internet and gratuities. Arrival/departure point is Puerto Montt. 2nd of the World Heritage Rifle Series - John Rigby London Best Corbett Commemorative Rifle

John Rigby and Co. have donated the second of the five World Heritage Rifle Series, the John Rigby London Best Corbett Commemorative Rifle for SCI's 44th Annual Hunters' Convention. The theme of the second of the World Heritage Rifle Series is Asia. It is little-known that Rigby exported more rifles to India than Africa before the Second World War, so it is fitting that Rigby was chosen to commemorate the bygone days of hunting in India. To celebrate the company's recent acquisition of Jim Corbett's personal .275 Rigby for their museum, the rifle will be based on it. Corbett was presented his .275 by Sir J.P. Hewett KCSI, Lieutenant Governor of the United Provinces, in gratitude for killing the man-eating tigress of Champawat in 1907, and the rifle has a silver plaque on the buttstock to that effect. This Rigby was the rifle he used in 1926 to kill the infamous Rudraprayag leopard, killer of more than 125 people. The World Heritage Rifle Series consists of five spectacular rifles, each representing the best of the gun maker's art and one of the world's five hunting continents, Africa, Asia, Europe, Oceania, and the Americas. This special rifle is built on a classic single-square-bridge Mauser action, with a claw extractor and three-position, Mauser-style safety, and has a 25-in. Classic Rigby barrel. It will feature unique, jungle-themed engraving on the barrel, action, magazine, bolt, grip cap and metal butt plate, along with engravings of illustrations from Corbett's books. Classic Rigby-pattern sights sit atop the barrel, and the rifle comes in a best-quality English leather case with accessories. To celebrate the Corbett rifle, Rigby has commissioned 100 sets of Jim Corbett's books, bound in Rigby blue leather with a gold logo and a new foreword by Diggory Haddock. The first set of the 100 will come with the rifle and proceeds from the sale of the other ninety-nine will be donated to the Jim Corbett National Park, in India. As a part of the World Heritage Rifle Series, this Rigby rifle comes with an outstanding display credenza, built by Julian and Sons, that will house the books, as well. Also included is an original oil on canvas by sporting and wildlife artist David Southgate of the 'Last Moments of the Champawat Man Eater' depicts Jim Corbett on the point of dispatching the dreaded man-eating tigress of Champawat. This was the act for which he was presented with the Rigby .275 that has inspired the firm's donation to SCI's 2016 auction. Rigby bought the painting from Mr Southgate, who will be donating the proceeds to tiger conservation in Jim Corbett National Park, India. Measures 48-in by 36-in. For more information, contact Marc Newton at +07951264819 or marc@johnrigbyandco.com.

Russian Sable Blanket

Luxuriate in a splendid Russian Sable Blanket donated by Alaska Fur Gallery. This king size fur blanket will take the edge off the cold while providing a wildlife accent to wherever you place it. Sable is one of the most coveted types of fur in the fur industry. Sable comes from Russia and is typically extremely expensive. There are Canadian versions of sable fur coats, and also American versions of sable fur coats. However, Russian sable fur coats are more expensive than their North American counterparts, mostly because the amount of sable skin in Russia is limited. Russian fur is hard to come by under any circumstances, with its silkiness and rarity, so rest assured that if you are considering the purchase of a sable coat or other product, you won't be compromising in value. Russian fur is generally rare, well made, and widely prized. Russian sable fur in particular is known for its silky quality. If you're looking for a fur that is light weight but will still keep you warm, go with Russian sable fur. Keep in mind that Russian sable fur is seen as a symbol of status due its their rarity. Alaska Fur Gallery of Anchorage has been internationally renowned for over 70 years. Family-owned and operated with outstanding personal service, size is 70 inches by 88 inches, the rectangular sections are 9 inches by 12 inches, there are a total of 16 of these rectangles and they alternate in color, i.e. one dark, then one light then one dark then one light, four down and four across. Tabletop Bronze Statue

Dick Idol Studios, LLC. has donated a limited edition Tabletop Bronze Statue featuring a golden eagle and a rattlesnake titled 'Checkmate.' The eagle's left foot is clamped on the rattlesnake just above the rattles. The rattler is woven through a rock, thus preventing the eagle from making the kill. However, the snake may deliver its own death blow from a venomous bite. In one of nature's life and death struggles, will eagle or snake prevail? Or will it end a 'checkmate!' Eagle is 34-in. tall and 23-in. long. For more information, contact Dick Idol at 406-862-5554 and visit www.dickidolgallery.com.

Handmade Men's Leather Jacket

M&R Moda in Pelle Firenze, Inc. has donated a high quality Italian lambskin Handmade Men's Leather Jacket. This 'Premium' leather jacket comes with 2 external flap pockets (flaps can be tucked in for a more casual look), and 3 internal pockets. Much of the Italian leather production is still done by hand and these techniques have been passed down from one generation to the next. This pride is a family tradition and these families still dominate the handmade leather industry. M&R Moda in Pelle Firenze, Inc. is proud to associate itself with one of these families, the Fanucci's. Due to the 'premium' nature of the hides, all of M&R's jackets are wrinkle and water resistant, and in addition, come with 100% Viscose linings and hardware, both also made in Italy. Bring this Non-Hunt Donations feature from the 2016 January issue of the Safari Times to our booth 1575 and receive a FREE Italian Calfskin Cross Body Bag with this auction and the purchase of one of our exquisite, handmade in Italy, 'Premium' leather jackets. 6. By making a purchase, the purchaser agrees that:

a. The auction and purchases made at the auction shall be governed in all respects, whether as to validity, construction, capacity, performance, or otherwise, by the laws of the State of Arizona, except as preempted by federal law and that venue for any and all actions, including litigation, mediation and/or arbitration, shall be in Pima County Arizona.

b. Any dispute or action arising out of or relating to the Auction and purchases made at the Auction shall first be submitted to mediation before a mediator mutually agreed to by the Parties, with said mediation to be held in Pima County, Arizona. If mediation is unsuccessful, then such dispute or claim shall be submitted to final and binding arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association or other appropriate standard relating to disputes arising out of contract, before one arbitrator, with said arbitration to be held in Pima County, Arizona.

7. If during a live auction, a final bid for an item is erroneously taken from two bidders, the bidding is closed to everyone else except those two bidders. The high bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer shall be the purchaser; the auctioneer shall have the sole and final discretion to determine the successful bidder in any auction. At each live auction, there will be pre-designated bid spotters in the audience, and it is the responsibility of the bidder to direct bids to the nearest spotter. The auctioneers and spotters will make every attempt to acknowledge all desired bids, but SCI is not responsible for any missed bids or bids that fail to be executed.

8. Successful bidders may, during or immediately following the auction, present their copy of the Buyer's Agreement to the Auction Payment Counter, where they may pay by cash, check or credit card. Checks should be made to SCI-First For Hunters (SCI) and must be drawn on a U.S. bank and in U.S. dollars. Visa, MasterCard, Diner's Card, Discover and American Express are accepted. Items purchased through an online auction will be shipped by the online shipping representative and fees are the responsibility of the purchaser.

9. All auction items purchased at other than the Saturday Night Auction must be paid for in full before 6 p.m. Saturday, the last day of the Convention. Auction items purchased at the Saturday Night Auction must be paid for before the official close of the Saturday Night Auction. Arrangements for the removal of all items must be made before the close of the Saturday Night Auction. Any auction items that have not been paid for by the close of the Saturday Night Auction may be subject to a 10% surcharge, which will be added to the winning bid and this total will then become the purchase price. Any items not removed by the close of the convention will be deposited with a third party shipper. Shipping arrangements and costs will be the responsibility of the buyer in every case. Any bidder/purchaser who leaves his/her purchases at the Convention does so at his/her own risk. SCI is not responsible for any item not removed from the Convention by the winning bidder/purchaser.

10. If you are unable to attend one or more live auction in person and wish to place bids for live auction items, you may submit a bid online by establishing an account and providing payment information through our third party online auction representative. One of our representatives will then try to purchase your items of choice at the lowest price but never for more than the top amount you indicate. To place an absentee bid online, you will need to provide in advance a pre-approved credit card or other method of payment, bank reference, item to bid on and maximum bidding price that is acceptable to SCI. An absentee online bidder must be a member of SCI and additionally pay the daily convention registration fee for the day of the auction of the items to be bid on. Bids submitted online, prior to a live auction, are absentee bids that must be executed on the bidders' behalf by an SCI representative, and recognized and accepted by an auctioneer during the live auction. Neither SCI nor its employees or agents will be held responsible for bids that fail to be executed or accepted.

11. Silent auction items will be showcased daily at the silent auction location for open bidding to all SCI members in attendance. All open bidding, legibly written (including name, membership number and bid) will be accepted on bid boards until 30 minutes before the close of each silent auction (annual closing times will be posted in the annual day auction guide and on signage at the silent auction location). Open bid boards will be closed 30 minutes prior to the close of each silent auction. The highest bid from the bid boards will be highlighted. The final 30 minutes of bidding in the silent auction is submitted on a sealed bid form and dropped into a drop box located in the silent auction area. Sealed bid times will be posted and announced during the auction. The winning bid will be determined at the end of the 30-minute sealed-bid period. The highest bid is determined from a combination of open written bids and sealed bids for each item. If a sealed bid is higher than the last open bid, that becomes the winning bid. If two sealed bids are for the same amount, the winning bid is determined by time of bid. All sealed bids are available for review in the Auction Distribution Room after final winning bids have been posted. Sealed bid instructions are posted on the bid boards and on signs in the silent auction location. Winning bids from the previous day's silent auction will be posted each morning at 9:00 a.m. beginning on the second convention day in the silent auction location, and at the Auction Payment Counter and the Auction Distribution Room. On the last Convention day, winning bid will be posted at 4:00 p.m. and all final payments must be made prior to the close of the Convention.

12. ALL SALES ARE FINAL. ALL TANGIBLE GOODS PURCHASED AT THE SCI AUCTIONS ARE SUBJECT TO THE CURRENT STATE AND LOCAL SALES TAX RATES. THERE WILL BE NO EXCHANGES OR REFUNDS on items or services. Unless otherwise indicated, all auction items, services and hunts must be used within one year of the date of the purchase at auction. Dates and times for applicable items are to be arranged at the mutual convenience of the donor and winning bidder/purchaser.

13. IT IS THE PURCHASER'S RESPONSIBILITY TO CONTACT THE DONOR REGARDING PURCHASED ITEMS, SERVICES OR HUNTS and to make all arrangements for hunt dates and the application of necessary paperwork for licenses and permits. SCI is not, and will not act as, a conduit or go-between between the purchaser and donor. After the hunt has been completed, the purchaser must complete a hunt report form and submit it to the Convention Department, Auction Program.

14. Items may be removed from the Auction Distribution Room only by presenting a claim check, which is issued to the purchaser at the time of payment. Auction items may be picked up in the Auction Distribution Room following each auction. On-site shipping will be available through a representative. Fees will be quoted and will be the responsibility of the purchaser.

15. Although SCI has made every effort to ensure the quality of donated hunts and trips, it cannot, and does not, guarantee the satisfaction of either the donor or the purchaser.

16. To protect our hunt donors, SCI reserves the right to withdraw any donated hunt from the auction that does not receive a bid at the minimum of 50% of its stated value. If the Auction Program Chairman and/or the Auctioneer determines that it is necessary or in SCI's best interest, the hunt may be offered to the last highest bidder at 50% of its stated value before determining that a withdrawal is necessary. If the last highest bidder rejects the offer, the hunt may be considered a no sale and withdrawn and may be resold later. All hunt values are printed in the auction catalog and verified from donor price lists. The Auctioneer shall have the sole and final discretion to determine the sale of a donated hunt.

17. Some hunts are subject to VAT and GST tax liabilities. Often these taxes are due and payable before a hunt can be taken. Other items may be subject to sales taxes. SCI does not assume responsibility for these fees. Please verify amounts with donor and check with the local government where a hunt is to be taken to validate tax rates.

18. All firearm (excluding some types of muzzleloaders and bows) purchases made during the convention will be subject to the Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act of 1993. After the close of the Convention all firearms purchased at an SCI auction or won in an SCI raffle will be returned to the SCI Headquarters in Tucson and shipped to the purchaser's nearest federally licensed dealer. It will be necessary for the purchaser to provide the SCI office with an original signed copy of the dealer's or their own federal firearm license (FFL) and a copy of the paid auction statement before shipment can be made. All shipping costs are the responsibility of the purchaser.

19. SCI has been advised that donated "worked" ivory may be sold at its auctions. "Worked" ivory must not have been imported under any permit that prohibits the sale of that ivory. The export of "worked" elephant ivory for non-commercial or personal uses is allowed under U.S. law, but requires a CITES permit and must have been imported legally. Most hunting trophies have come into the U.S. under permits that prohibit sale, and cannot be sold. Export of "raw" ivory is not allowed for any purpose.

20. The terms and conditions set forth in the Auction Buyer Policy and the Auction Hunt Policy are hereby incorporated herein by reference.

The purchaser's acceptance of the Buyer's Agreement, online terms and conditions, Silent Auction Bid Sheet, or Silent Auction Sealed Bid Form signifies and guarantees that the purchaser has read and understands these Auction Program Rules and Regulations, the Auction Buyer Policy and the Auction Hunt Policy, and the purchaser accepts and agrees to completely abide by and be legally bound by all the terms, conditions, rules and regulations for the Auction Program.

SCI AUCTION PROGRAM POLICIES

SCI is a Section 501(c)(4), non-profit membership organization. Our members are conservationists who hunt. Our mission is conservation of wildlife, education of the public, and advocacy for hunting and hunters' rights. SCI appreciates the support of its donors and members in helping to further its programs and goals. Auction revenue funds a great portion of SCI's operating budget. The majority of the dollars raised goes to support SCI's conservation and education programs and for protection of the hunter. The term "auction" refers to silent auction, live auction and raffle.

Items donated to SCI and amounts paid to SCI as part of the auction do not qualify as charitable deductions. SCI is not a qualified charitable organization. No portion of any SCI auction purchase is eligible for a tax deduction unless it is an auction item (not a raffle item) sold for the benefit of SCI Foundation, which is a qualified charitable organization. If an auction item (not a raffle item) is sold for the benefit of the SCI Foundation, the purchaser may be eligible for a charitable deduction for only that portion of the payment that is over the item's fair market (or retail) value (except for raffle ticket purchase, which are not eligible for a charitable deduction in all cases). All auction items are donated to SCI (not SCI Foundation) by SCI exhibitors unless otherwise noted. If an auction item is dedicated to benefit SCI Foundation, it will be noted in the description. Charitable deductions should be referred to in IRS Publication 1391, Deductibility of Payments Made to Charities Conducting Fund Raising Events and your tax advisor.

These Auction Program Rules and Regulations apply to auctions and raffles conducted for the benefit of SCI and SCI Foundation and the term "SCI" shall include "SCI Foundation" in all instances where the auction or raffle is conducted for the benefit of SCI Foundation.

Any exceptions to these Auction Program Rules & Regulations must be reviewed and accepted by Show Management and, if necessary, the SCI Executive Committee.

No services auctioned are to or will be performed by SCI.

4. After bidding for an item concludes and the auctioneer designates a winning bidder, the designated winner (buyer) must immediately agree to a Buyer's Agreement. All signatures on Buyer's Agreements, Silent Auction Bid Sheets and Silent Auction Sealed Bid Forms, and "I accept" for online purchases, are legal and binding. SCI/SCIF will not recognize changes, additions or deletions to any auction description agreed to by the buyer and donor unless such changes are noted on the Buyer's Agreement and signed by the buyer and an authorized representative of the donor, or in the case of online buyers, noted in an electronic writing exchanged between the buyer and an authorized representative of the donor.
